IKK 2008 not taking place

Trade fair would be underachieving

IKK, the International Trade Fair for Refrigeration, Air Conditioning and Ventilation, will not take place in 2008 in Stuttgart as a result of a discussion between the VDKF (German Association of Refrigeration and Air Conditioning) and Messe Stuttgart. The VDKF and Messe Stuttgart realised that the existing result did not do justice to the standard of the brand name IKK and that of the Stuttgart Trade Fair Centre as a high-tech location and, therefore, withdrew from the competition.

Further information to follow shortly.
